TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

INSTRUCTION PACKET

Use the Termination of Parental Rights Packet ONLY when:

- ❑ You are at least 18 years old (you must be 21 years old to adopt); AND
- ❑ You are seeking to terminate someone's parental rights to a child for the purposes of adoption; AND
- ❑ You are the mother, father or a blood relative of the child; AND
- ❑ The child is younger than 18 years of age. (Family Court can only terminate the parental rights of a minor); AND
- ❑ The child has been living in Delaware for AT LEAST 6 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS BEFORE filing your Petition to Terminate Parental Rights. (There are exceptions to this 6 month requirement. If the child has not lived in Delaware for at least 6 months, talk to an attorney to see if an exception applies to your situation).

You may file to Terminate Parental Rights singly or jointly with another person. If you file jointly with another person, the other person must also be at least 18 years old.

This Instruction Packet will explain termination of parental rights as if you wanted to file to terminate parental rights for one child. If you would like to terminate parental rights of more than one child and all of the children have the same mother AND the same father, you may file to terminate parental rights of all of the children on the same petition. Please note that if any of the children for which you are seeking to terminate parental rights have different fathers or mothers, you must file to terminate parental rights on separate petitions. For example, if two of the children have one father and one of the children has a different father, you would be required to file two petitions, one for each father.

HOW TO USE THE PACKET

This packet contains general information about the process of filing a Petition for Termination of Parental Rights, basic instructions on how to complete the Court forms you must file, and samples of the completed Court forms.

You should read the instructions and sample forms carefully before filling out any forms. All of the forms must be neatly filled out by hand in ink or typed. ONLY FILE THE FORMS INCLUDED IN THE BLANK FORMS PACKET. The sample forms included in this Instruction Packet are simply to help you understand how to fill out the real forms in the Forms Packet. Do not file the sample forms.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO COMPLETE ALL THE SECTIONS AT ONCE. For example, you do not have to file the forms in Section 2 at the same time as the forms in Section 1. Read the information carefully to be sure that you know what you are supposed to do and when.

Please look for the shaded written instructions and the following symbols throughout the packet. They will help guide you.

TIPS AND REMINDERS ...

- ✓ Make sure to read any Answers to Frequently Asked Questions on Termination of Parental Rights. These are located in the Resource Centers in each courthouse. They will help you to better understand the termination of parental rights process.
- ✓ Remember who is the Petitioner and who is the Respondent.
 - The PETITIONER is the person who filed the Petition for Termination of Parental Rights, in other words, you.
 - The RESPONDENT is the person(s) answering (responding) to the Petition.
- ✓ Remember that just because you fill out the forms correctly does not necessarily mean that the Court will give you (grant) what you want. It is up to you at the court hearing to prove why the Court should give you what you want.
- ✓ Representing yourself may take a lot of time, may be difficult and may be confusing. The Court will expect you to follow the same rules that attorneys must follow. If at any point throughout the Court process you are not sure about representing yourself, you should talk to an attorney.
- ✓ Please remember that COURT STAFF CANNOT GIVE YOU LEGAL ADVICE. Should you have a question about what options you have or what you should do, you should talk to an attorney. Just because you talk to an attorney does not necessarily mean that you must hire that attorney to represent you. Ask the attorney if he/she is willing to meet with you and answer your questions without having to hire that attorney for full representation. Before you meet with the attorney, ask what fees may be involved for such limited services.

- ✓ If you would like assistance finding an attorney, you can call the Lawyer Referral Service in New Castle County, 302-478-8850, and in Kent and Sussex Counties, 1-800-773-0606. (You may call the same telephone numbers and ask for the Legal Help Link to find out if you qualify for free legal assistance.) You also can refer to the Attorney Roster that is located at the Family Court Resource Centers. The Attorney Roster is a listing of some of the attorneys who practice family law in Delaware and includes information about how to contact the attorneys and what fees the attorneys charge.
- ✓ Always bring your photo identification with you (such as your driver's license, or a state-issued photo identification card) whenever you get a Court form notarized. The identification must be current, have a photo, the signer's physical description and the signer's signature.
- ✓ THERE IS A LOT OF PAPER IN A COURT CASE AND HAVING THE COURT MAKE YOU COPIES CAN BE VERY EXPENSIVE.

PLEASE READ AND REMEMBER THESE IMPORTANT TIPS

REMEMBER

- Keep a copy of every document and court paper.
- Keep all notes, documents and court papers together and organized in a folder with the most recent papers on top.
- Bring the folder with your papers with you every time you go to Court.
- When you file a document with the Court, bring the required number of copies of each paper and an extra copy for you to have “clocked-in.” Keep the clocked-in copy in your folder so you have proof of the time and date you filed each document. You may make copies at the Resource and Self-Help Centers but there is a small fee.
- When you complete a document or form for filing with the Court, always include the full case name and file and petition numbers (if there are any).
- When you must mail something, we suggest that you use regular mail AND “certified mail, return receipt requested” so that you have proof that the other party received the envelope. If you cannot afford to pay for “certified mail” we suggest you get a “certificate of mailing” at the post office to prove that you mailed the envelope to the other party. You may purchase stamped envelopes at the Resource and Self-Help Centers and the Court will mail your Court papers for you by regular mail. You are responsible for certified mailing.

TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS & ADOPTION

The Definition of Termination of Parental Rights

The intent of Termination of Parental Rights (“TPR”) is to legally and permanently terminate the relationship between a child and his/her parent. The law about TPR is found within Chapter 11 of Title 13 of the Delaware Code.

Transfer of Parental Rights and Definition of Adoption

After the Court issues a TPR Order, parental rights are usually then transferred to another person through an Adoption Order. The prospective adoptive parent must file a Petition for Adoption. Once an Adoption Order is issued, the adoptive parent then becomes the permanent legal parent of the child and will have all of the rights, duties, privileges and obligations recognized by the law between parents and their children. The law about adoption is found within Chapter 9 of Title 13 of the Delaware Code.

Effect of Losing One’s Parental Rights

Both the individual whose parental rights were terminated and that individual’s relatives lose all rights of inheritance from the child. Accordingly, the child will no longer have rights of inheritance from the individual whose rights were terminated and from that individual’s relatives.

If the individual whose parental rights were terminated still wants the child to inherit from him/her, then he/she must include the child in his/her will. For more information on wills and inheritance rights, you should talk to an attorney. Wills and inheritance rights are not handled in Family Court.

Who Can Ask the Family Court for a TPR (i.e. who can Petition for TPR)?

A Petition for TPR may be filed in the State of Delaware by any of the following:

- The mother of a child;
- The father or presumed father of a child;
- Both parents of a child;
- A blood relative of a child;
- The Department of Services for Children, Youth and Their Families (the “Department”);
- Any agency granted a license by the Department to place children for adoption (a “licensed agency”).

Who Can Seek to Adopt (i.e. who can Petition for Adoption)?

A Petition for Adoption may be filed in the State of Delaware IF you are:
either:

- An unmarried person; OR
- A husband and wife jointly seeking to adopt and who are NOT legally separated, living apart from each other, and/or divorced;
- AND over 21 years old;
- AND a Delaware resident.

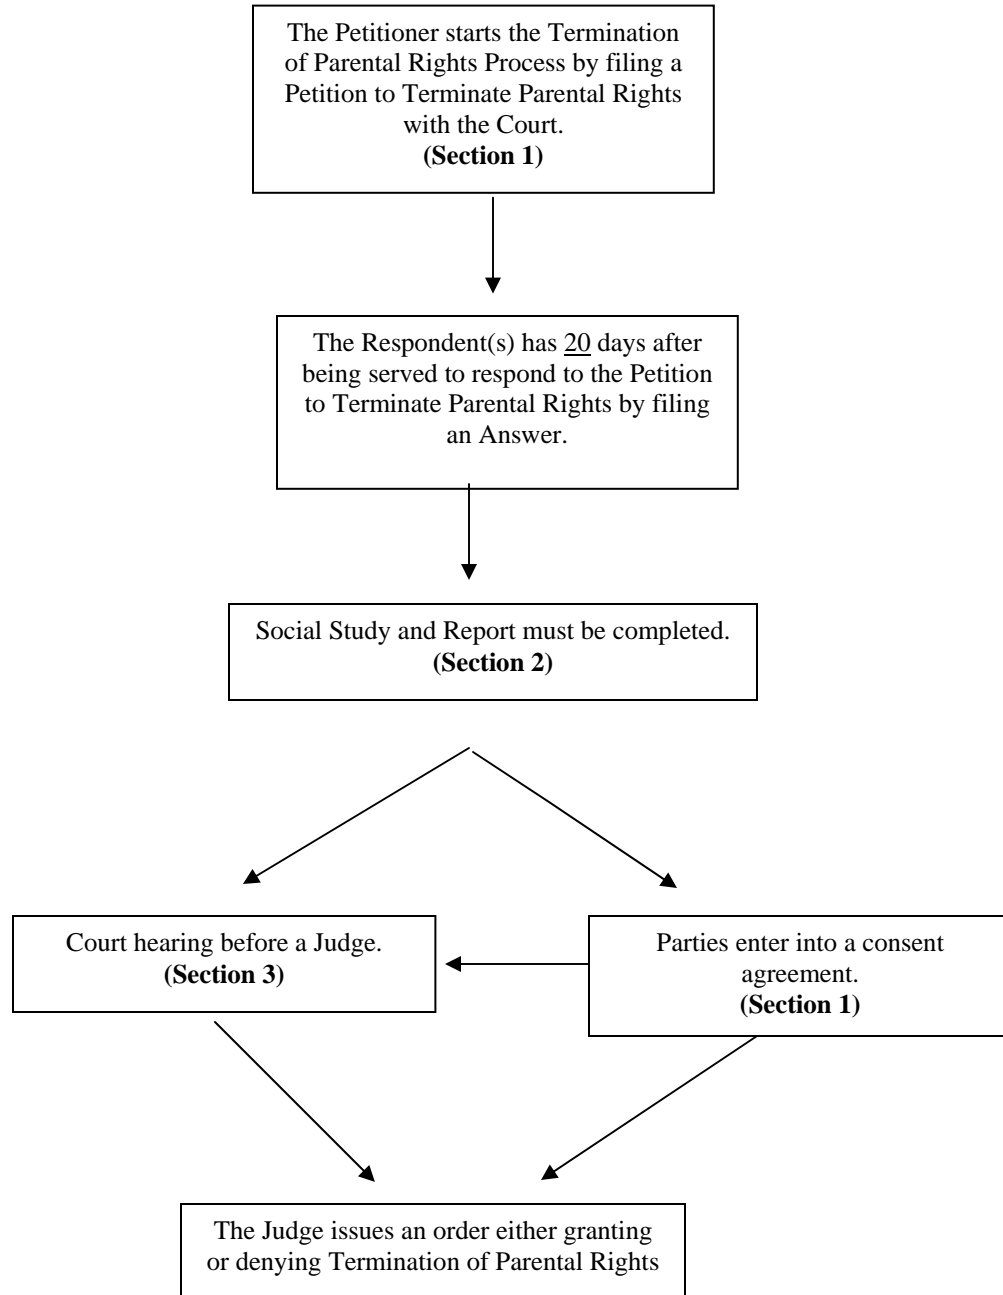

It is recommended that you use the TPR Instruction Packet ONLY IF the Department is NOT a party to the TPR proceeding. This means that the Department does NOT have custody over the child (i.e. the child is NOT in foster care) and is not a party to the TPR proceeding. Thus, you are advised to use the TPR Instruction Packet IF:

- You are seeking to terminate someone’s parental rights over a child so that you or another individual may pursue adoption of such child.
- AND you are representing yourself in the TPR action (i.e. proceeding pro se)

- AND you are:
 - The mother of the child; OR
 - The father (or presumed father) of the child; OR
 - A blood relative of the child (e.g. aunt; uncle; grandparent(s), sister, brother, or cousin)

THE TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS PROCESS

SECTION 1

STARTING THE TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

PROCESS

To File for Termination of Parental Rights, the following requirements must be met:

- ☐ You are seeking to terminate someone's parental rights to a child so that you or another person may pursue adoption of that child; AND
- ☐ The child had been living in Delaware for AT LEAST 6 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS BEFORE the Petitioner filed the Petition for Termination of Parental Rights. (There are exceptions to this 6 month requirement. If the child has not lived in Delaware for at least 6 months, talk to an attorney to see if an exception applies in your situation.); AND
- ☐ The Petitioner is at least 18 years of age (you must be 21 in order to adopt); AND
- ☐ The Petitioner is the mother, father, or blood relative of the child.

You MUST file the ORIGINAL and ONE (1) COPY FOR EACH RESPONDENT of each form below with the Court.

- Make a copy of each completed form for your records.
- Have your set of copies “clocked-in” for your file. Having a paper “clocked-in” means that the Court will stamp on the copy the time and date you filed your papers. Your clocked-in copy will serve as proof of the time and date you filed the paper.

Petition for Termination of Parental Rights form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample Form can be found on page 21.
- Only a mother, father or blood relative of the child may petition the Court to Terminate Parental Rights.
- The U.S. and Delaware State Constitutions require that whenever a petition is filed with the Court, ALL of the people involved with the case must be notified. By naming a person as a Respondent, you are asking the Court to notify him/her of the petition. In Termination of Parental Rights cases the following people should be named as Respondent(s):
 - The natural parent(s) of the child;
 - Any guardian of the child or the person with whom the child is living;
 - Any Guardian ad Litem of the child;
 - And the organization having custody of the child (for example, the Division of Family Services).

If you fail to notify any of the necessary parties, your petition may be deficient and you may have to start the process over.

- You MUST list the natural parent(s) as Respondents, even if one of the parents has never had any contact with the child. If the child lives with a step-parent, you must list the natural parent, not the step-parent as the Respondent. For example, if the child lives with his mother and step-father and has had no contact with his natural father, you must name father, not step-father, as the Respondents on your petition.

☐ For questions regarding paternity, please see Appendix A.

- If one or both parents are deceased, list the deceased parent(s) as a Respondent(s), indicate on the petition that he/she is deceased and the date of death.
- If the Respondent(s) voluntarily consent to the Termination of Parental Rights, they must complete a Consent to Termination and Transfer of Parental Rights and an Affidavit of Consent to Termination of Parental Rights and Adoption. For more information, please see page 15.
- You must sign your Petition for Termination of Parental Rights in the presence of a notary public or authorized Court staff.

Grounds for Termination of Parental Rights

- When alleging facts in your Petition For Termination of Parental Rights, you must indicate at least one Ground for Termination of Parental Rights for each child. The Petition for Termination of Parental Rights lists the grounds and you should place an “x” in front of all the grounds that apply. The grounds can be found on pages 53 of this Instruction booklet and can be found on the last three pages of the Petition for Termination of Parental Rights.

Custody Separate Statement form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample form can be found on page 29.
- The Custody Separate Statement explains to the Court a child’s past and present living arrangements, so that the Court can determine if it has authority to decide your Petition for Termination of Parental Rights. If all of the children included in your petition have had the same living arrangements as one another for the past five years, then you may include all children on a single form. However, if the children have lived apart from each other sometime during the past five years, you must complete a separate form for each child. For example, if last year, one child resided with one parent and one child resided with the other parent, it would be necessary to file two Custody Separate Statements, explaining where each child lived.

Information Sheet form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample form can be found on page 32.
- This form provides the Court with general information about the parties that allows the Court to adequately notify the parties about upcoming proceedings and to maintain up-to-date records.

Praecipe in a Termination of Parental Rights form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample form can be found on page 34.
- This form instructs the Clerk of Court to serve copies of the Petition to Termination Parental Rights on the Respondent(s) and publish notice of the Petition in a local or foreign newspaper if necessary.
- For information on publication, please see page

TPR Order of Reference for Termination of Parental Rights form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample forms can be found on page 35.
- The Order of Reference is a form that includes the information about the agency chosen and an order for the judge to sign.
- On the Order of Reference you will list the name of the licensed child-placing agency that you have selected to complete the Social Study and Report.
- Once you have completed this form and submitted it to the court, along with all other forms, a judge must sign it. The Clerk will then forward the Order to the agency. The agency can then begin preparing the social study and report.

- You MUST pay the licensed child-placing agency to complete the Social Study and Report. This is not a court fee and cannot be waived by the court. You are responsible for the entire cost of preparing the Social Study and Report.
- The Social Study and Report can be very expensive so you might want to find out how much different agencies charge before deciding which one to use.
- For more information on the Social Study and Report, please see Section 2.

Order for a Hearing form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample form can be found on page 36.
- This form is used by the Court and you will only partially fill it in as indicated on the sample form. The Court will fill in the rest of the information once it determines the date for a Court hearing. Essentially, this form will become the Court's Order for a Hearing in your TPR case.

Final Order form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample form can be found on page 37.
- This form is used by the Court to grant or deny your Petition for TPR after a hearing. This form may also be used to grant or deny a Petition for Adoption. You will only partially fill in this form as is indicated on the sample form. The Court will fill in the rest of the information when the Judge issues the Order.

BELOW ARE OPTIONAL FORMS

ONLY file the following forms if the situation applies to you.

If you do not know where Respondent(s) lives, file:

Affidavit that a Party's Address is Unknown form. (file the original and one copy).

- Sample form can be found on page 38.
- You must provide the Court with each Respondent's current address. If you do not know where the Respondent(s) currently lives, you must try to locate him or her. Ways to do this include talking to the Respondent's friends or relatives or checking the Internet. If, after looking for the Respondent(s), you cannot find his/her current address, you must complete this form. Do not complete this form until you have made an effort to locate the Respondent(s).
- You must complete this form before we publish notice of the matter in the newspaper. Please see page 35 for more information regarding Notice by Publication.

If all parties agree on the Termination of Parental Rights, file:

Consent to Termination and Transfer of Parental Rights form. (file one original).

- Sample form may be found on page 39.

- File this document only if the Respondent(s) have already agreed upon the termination and transfer of parental rights to another person for purposes of adoption.
- This form must be signed by the Respondent(s) who agrees to have his or her parental rights terminated. If there are 2 Respondents agreeing to have their parental rights terminated, they must each sign separate forms.
 - The birth mother may sign this form only after the child is born. The father or presumed father may sign this form either before or after the child is born.
- On this form, the Respondent(s) will describe for the Court:
 - To whom parental rights will be transferred for the purpose of adoption
- On this form, the Respondent(s) will acknowledge that:
 - they understand the rights that they are terminating; AND
 - they understand that after the consent is signed, it cannot be revoked unless the requirements of 13 Del.C. §1106B(a) have been met.
- Before the Respondent signs this form, he/she MUST be in the presence of any of the following persons who are authorized to take consents:
 - A judge of a Court of record; OR
 - An individual designated by a Judge to take consents; OR
 - An employee designated by an authorized agency to take consents: OR
 - An attorney other than the attorney(s) representing the adoptive parent(s) or representing the agency to which parental rights will be transferred.
 - A notary public is NOT an authorized person to take consents!

Affidavit of Consent to Termination of Parental Rights and Adoption

(file the original and one copy for each Respondent).

- Sample form may be found on page 41.
- File this document only if the Respondent(s) have already agreed upon the termination and transfer of parental rights to another person for purposes of adoption.
- This form must be signed by the Respondent(s) who agrees to have his or her parental rights terminated. If there are 2 Respondents agreeing to have their parental rights terminated, they must each sign separate forms.
 - The birth mother may sign this form only after the child is born. The father or presumed father may sign this form either before or after the child is born.
- On this form, the Respondent(s) will describe for the Court:
 - To whom parental rights will be transferred for the purpose of adoption
- On this form, the Respondent(s) will acknowledge that:
 - they understand the rights that they are terminating; AND
 - they understand that after the consent is signed, it cannot be revoked unless the requirements of 13 Del.C. §1106B(a) have been met.

If Respondent(s) is in the military, file:

Waiver of Rights under the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act (file the original and one copy for each Respondent).

- Sample form may be found on page 43.
- If the Respondent(s) is in the military, the Respondent(s) must file an Answer, an Affidavit of Appearance or YOU must have the Respondent(s) sign a Waiver of Rights under the Servicemembers'

Civil Relief Act. If the Respondent(s) does not file one of these documents, you must file a Motion to Appoint an Attorney. You should start this process as soon as possible because it takes time. The Court will not schedule your Termination of Parental Rights hearing until you complete this process.

- If there are multiple Respondents who are in the military you must file a separate form for each Respondent.

BE SPECIFIC WHEN COMPLETING THE FORMS and make sure that you address ALL of the grounds found on pages 24-27 in your petition. When you complete a form, write in blue or black ink AND write neatly.

File the forms at the Family Court in the County where the child currently lives or the county in which a parent of the child currently lives. If the child does not currently live in Delaware, you should talk to an attorney before filing to make sure the Delaware Family Court is the right Court to hear your case and to find out in which state and county you should file.

- In Kent and Sussex Counties you may file your papers at the Resource Centers on the first floor of the Family Court buildings.
- In New Castle County, you may file your papers at Family Court Intake on Lower Level 1 of the New Castle County Courthouse.
- If you file your papers by mail, the addresses for each courthouse are available on the Family Court website. The Court does NOT accept filings that are faxed or e-mailed.

A filing fee is charged for each petition that is filed. The filing fee can be paid by cash, credit card, debit card, check or money order made payable to "Family Court". If you are filing by mail, you may only pay by check or money order. FAMILY COURT WILL NOT ACCEPT YOUR PAPERS WITHOUT THE FILING FEE. There are additional costs if we must publish notice of this action.

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

SERVICE OF PROCESS

Each Respondent must receive a copy of the Petition for Termination of Parental Rights. The delivery of the Petition for Termination of Parental Rights and any other forms you file is called Service of Process. The way that the Court accomplishes Service of Process depends on how much information you can provide the Court about where the Respondent(s) lives. Determine from the following options how Service of Process should be accomplished in your case.

❑ The Respondent Lives in Delaware and You Know His/Her Address

If the Respondent lives in Delaware AND you know his/her address, a Process Server (someone whose job involves delivering Court papers) will give a copy of your petition and other papers to the Respondent(s). This is called Personal Service and the Court will do this for you.

❑ The Respondent Does Not Live in Delaware and You Know His/Her Address

If a Respondent(s) does NOT live in Delaware AND you know the Respondent's address, the Court will mail your papers via certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Respondent(s). The court will, AT YOUR EXPENSE, publish legal notice of your petition in 2 approved newspapers in the county and state where the Respondent(s) lives. You must provide the name of the newspapers for the out of state Respondent(s).

❑ You Do Not Know Where the Respondent Lives or Works

If you do NOT know where a Respondent lives or works so that the Process Server can deliver your petition to that Respondent, THE COURT will publish AT YOUR EXPENSE a legal notice of your petition in 2 approved newspapers for 3 consecutive weeks in the county and state where the Respondent's last known address was located. You must also complete an Affidavit that Address is Unknown form (see page 14).

THE ANSWER

- Once the Respondent(s) has been served with the Petition for Termination of Parental Rights, each Respondent(s) has 20 days from the date of service (the date that the court papers are delivered to the Respondent(s)) to respond by filing an Answer to your Petition for Termination of Parental Rights. If there is more than one Respondent in your case, each Respondent must file his/her own separate Answer. You should receive a copy of the Respondent's Answer in the mail.
- On the Answer to your Petition for Termination of Parental Rights, the Respondent(s) must admit (agree with) or deny (disagree with) each of the statements you made in your petition. The Respondent(s) may explain why he/she disagrees with the statement.

YOU SHOULD BEGIN SECTION 2
ONCE YOU HAVE FILED THE FORMS
IN SECTION 1.

TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS AND ADOPTION CONSENTING PARTY STATEMENT

I, Michelle Jones, THE mother of Douglas A. Smith, who was born on 10/14/2005:

1. Believe the adoption of my child by Anne & Scott Smith would be in the child's best interest.
2. Know that my decision to terminate my parental rights and to consent to the adoption of my child is an important one.
3. Know and understand that upon the Court's granting of the final decree of adoption that my parental rights over said child shall be terminated and I will no longer be the legal parent of my child.
4. Know and understand that when my child is adopted and my parental rights in said child are terminated, I give up all rights, privileges, and responsibilities concerning the child.
5. Know and understand that when my child is adopted and my parental rights in said child are terminated, the child becomes the child of Anne and Scott Smith, and as a result the child's name may be changed.
6. Know and understand that when my child is adopted and my parental rights in said child are terminated, I will not have the right to visit with him/her or know his/her whereabouts.
7. Know and understand that when my child is adopted and my parental rights in said child are terminated, my child loses the right to inherit from me and I lose the right to inherit from him/her. This shall not in any way limit my right to provide for the disposition of my estate by will.
8. Know and understand that I may, within sixty (60) days of the filing of the adoption petition containing this consent, petition the Family Court to revoke this consent and dismiss the adoption petition.

Section 2

SOCIAL STUDY AND REPORT

For Termination of Parental Rights, a Social Study and Report is Mandatory.

A Social Study and Report is a report that provides detailed information about you and the child which will help the Court determine whether parental rights should be transferred to you. A worker from a child-placing agency will talk to all of the people involved with the case including you, the child's parents and the child. The worker will then write a report and submit it to the Court. The report will include information about the following:

- The child and the child's background;
- You and your home where the child will be living;
- The child's physical and mental condition;
- The suitability of the placement;
- Whether all of the requirements under Delaware law have been met; AND
- The agency's recommendation regarding whether the termination of parental rights should be granted.

Because the Social Study and Report must contain a lot of information, the worker investigating and preparing the report will probably need to get some information from you. The worker will likely ask you for the names of people that he/she can speak with to find out more information about you, the child and the child's situation. Furthermore, the worker may want to visit your home and see the environment where the child will be living. The worker may also ask you to provide him/her with documents and papers that are needed to prepare the report. It is VERY important that you cooperate with the worker and comply with his/her requests to the best of your ability. Remember, that the information in the report will guide the Court when deciding whether to transfer parental rights.

YOU must select a licensed child-placing agency to do the Social Report and Study. A list of child-placing agencies is available in the Family Court Resource Centers located in each courthouse. You select the agency by filing the Order of Reference form described in Section 1, page 13.

SECTION 3 WILL BEGIN NEXT.

Section 3

HEARING WITH A JUDGE

SCHEDULING THE HEARING

- A Court Hearing will be scheduled by the Court.

You do not need to file any additional paperwork to have your hearing scheduled. The Court will notify you when your hearing is scheduled, by mailing you a Notice to inform you of the time and date of the Court Hearing.

If you cannot attend the scheduled hearing, you must file the following form:

Motion for Continuance (file one original and mail one copy to the Respondent).

- Sample form may be found on page 50.
- If, once you receive your Notice, you cannot attend the scheduled Termination of Parental Rights Hearing, you must contact the Court IMMEDIATELY by filing a Motion for Continuance. DO NOT call the Court. On this Motion, you must state very specific reasons why you cannot attend the hearing. You must have a legal and unavoidable reason for needing to reschedule the hearing. You cannot request a continuance simply because it is not convenient for you to attend the hearing on the scheduled day. Before you file the Motion for Continuance, you must contact each of the Respondent(s) regarding the continuance and then tell the Court in your motion how the Respondent(s) feels about the continuance. Because the law is very strict when it comes to rescheduling, these Motions are not always granted.

- You will be notified by the Court if your Motion for Continuance has been granted. UNLESS THE COURT GRANTS YOU A CONTINUANCE, YOU MUST APPEAR AT COURT THE DAY OF YOUR SCHEDULED HEARING. If you fail to appear at your hearing, the Court can dismiss your petition or enter an order granting the Respondent(s) everything that he/she wants.

THE DAY OF THE HEARING

The Court Hearing is a trial in front of a Judge. At the Court Hearing, you and the Respondent(s) will each be given an opportunity to tell your sides of the case and ask witnesses questions. During the Court Hearing, the Judge expects you to follow a certain procedure. It is important that you are familiar with this procedure so that you know what you are allowed to do, when you are allowed to talk, and how to tell your side of the story.

Family Court has developed a Court Hearing Procedure Overview that explains generally what the Court Hearing procedure is and should answer many of the questions you have about the procedure. Family Court also has developed a series of Answers to Frequently Asked Questions on Your Court Hearing to help you prepare and organize for your Court Hearing. This information can be found in the Resource Centers in each courthouse.

Unless the parent(s) consent to the termination of parental rights, it is up to YOU at the hearing to prove the following:

- The grounds for Termination of Parental Rights are met. These grounds are provided on pages 53-60 of this packet. Review that information before the hearing, so that you are prepared to present your case to the Court.
- It is in the best interests of the child to terminate parental rights. The Court will consider the following 8 factors in determining what is in the best interests of the child:

- The wishes of the child's parents as to his/her custody and living arrangements;
- The wishes of the child as to his/her custody and living arrangements;
- The interaction of the child with his/her parents, brothers and sisters, grandparents and any people living in the child's home or affecting the child's best interest;
- The child's adjustment to his/her home, school and community;
- The mental and physical health of all individuals involved;
- How well each parent has in the past and currently satisfies their parental rights and responsibilities with respect to their children;
- Evidence of domestic violence; and
- The criminal history of any party or other resident of a household, including guilty pleas, pleas of no contest and criminal convictions.

After both sides have presented all of their evidence, one of two things can happen. The Judge can announce his/her decision at the end of the hearing, in which case you will leave the Courthouse knowing what the termination of parental rights arrangement is. OR, the Judge can reserve decision. When the Judge reserves decision, he/she considers all of the information presented during the hearing and issues a written order explaining the why the termination of parental rights was granted or denied. Regardless of how the Judge issues the order, you should receive a copy of the Judge's decision, or Court Order, in the mail.

SECTION 4 WILL BEGIN AFTER THE SAMPLE FORMS FOR SECTION 3.

APPEAL

- A parent may not petition the Court to change a termination of parental rights order once it has been granted.

RIGHT OF APPEAL

If you believe the Court's decision was wrong based on what happened at the Court Hearing, you only have 30 DAYS AFTER the Order was docketed to file an Appeal with the Supreme Court. An appeal does NOT grant you a new trial and it does NOT grant you a chance to re-argue your case. It only asks the Supreme Court to examine the record and decide if the Judge applied the law correctly to the facts presented at the hearing.

If you want to file an Appeal, we strongly recommend you speak to an attorney. Just because you disagree with the Judge's decision does not necessarily mean you have one of the legal grounds to file an Appeal. Appeals can be very expensive and an attorney can help you decide whether filing an Appeal is advisable.

Legal Grounds for Terminating Parental Rights

1. The RESPONDENT(s) WANTS (i.e. consents) to have his/her parental rights terminated for the purpose of someone else adopting the child.
2. The RESPONDENT(s) “abandoned” the child. (For the definition of abandonment read the following section regarding the legal definition of abandonment).
3. The RESPONDENT(s) is “mentally incompetent” by reason of mental illness, psychopathology, mental retardation, or mental deficiency AND because of such mental incompetence, the RESPONDENT is unable to care for, support, and provide for the child’s physical needs (including adequate food, clothing, and shelter) and/or for the child’s mental and emotional health and development. If this is one of the reasons you are filing to terminate parental rights, the Court will select 2 qualified psychiatrists AT YOUR EXPENSE for their medical opinion as to whether such person will continue to be unable to provide for the child’s physical and/or emotional needs in the foreseeable future. Furthermore, the Court will appoint a licensed attorney as Guardian ad Litem to represent the alleged incompetent person in the proceeding. (For more information on Guardians ad Litem, read the Guardian ad Litem Overview.)
4. The RESPONDENT(s) has already had his/her parental rights involuntarily terminated for the child’s sibling (brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister).

5. The RESPONDENT(s) has subjected the child to torture, chronic abuse, sexual abuse, and/or life-threatening abuse.
6. The child has suffered unexplained serious physical injuries under such circumstances that would lead you to believe that the injuries resulted from the intentional conduct or willful neglect of the RESPONDENT(s).
7. The RESPONDENT(s) has been convicted of any of the following:
 - a. Committing a felony level offense against a child (Felony level offense as described in Title 11 of the Delaware Code Chapter 5, subchapter II); OR
 - b. Aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring or soliciting to commit a felony level offense against a child (Felony level offense as described in Title 11 of the Delaware Code Chapter 5, subchapter II); OR
 - c. Committing or attempting to commit the offense of Dealing in Children as set forth in Title 11 of the Delaware Code section 1100; OR
 - d. Committing the felony level offense of endangering the welfare of a child as set forth in Title 11 of the Delaware Code section 1102.
8. The RESPONDENT(s) is not able or has failed to plan adequately for the child's physical needs or mental and emotional health and development AND:
 - a. The child has lived in the home of the stepparent or blood relative for a period of at least 1 year, or for a period of 6 months in the case of an infant; AND

b. The Court finds that the RESPONDENT(s) is incapable of exercising parental responsibilities, and there appears to be little likelihood that such RESPONDENT(s) will be able to exercise such parental responsibilities in the near future.

 Family Court may not terminate an individual's parental rights solely because the individual, in good faith, provides for his or her child by spiritual means alone through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practice of a recognized church or religious denomination as opposed to seeking medical treatment. However, in such situation, Family Court may immediately assume custody of a child and order whatever action may be necessary, including medical treatment, to protect the child's health and welfare.

The Meaning of “Abandonment”

“Abandonment” has different meanings depending upon whether or not the RESPONDENT(s) intended to abandon the child and the age of the child.

1. “Abandonment” When the RESPONDENT(s) Intended To Abandon The Child

If the RESPONDENT(s) INTENDED to abandon the child, at least one of the following must be true:

a. The child is younger than 6 months old at the time of filing the Petition for TPR, AND the RESPONDENT(s) FAILED to:

- Pay reasonable prenatal, natal and postnatal expenses in accordance with that person’s financial means; AND
- Visit regularly with the child; AND
- Show an ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the child if the child was NOT in the physical custody of the other parent.

OR

b. The child is at least 6 months old at the time of filing the Petition for TPR AND for at least 6 months in a row during the year immediately before filing the Petition, the RESPONDENT(s) FAILED to:

- Make reasonable and consistent payments in accordance with that person’s financial means for support of the child; AND
- Communicate or visit regularly with the child; AND

- Show the ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the child if the child was NOT in the physical custody of the other parent.

OR

c. The child is younger than 6 months old at the time of filing the Petition for TPR AND the RESPONDENT(s) has placed the child in circumstances leaving the child in substantial risk of injury or death and therefore has demonstrated the unwillingness to exercise parental rights.

2. “Abandonment” When The RESPONDENT(s) Did Not Intend To Abandon The Child

If the RESPONDENT(s) did NOT intend to abandon the child, the Court may nevertheless order a TPR based upon abandonment.

The Court may find that a child has been abandoned IF, for 12 months in a row in the 18 months BEFORE filing the Petition for TPR, the RESPONDENT FAILED to:

- Communicate or visit regularly with the child; AND
- File or pursue a pending Petition to establish paternity or to establish the right to have contact or visitation with the child;
AND
- Show the ability and willingness to assume legal and physical custody of the child if the child was not in the physical custody of the other parent AND the COURT FINDS one of the following grounds exist:

- a. If the child is NOT in the legal and physical custody of the other parent and that person is NOT able or willing promptly to assume legal and physical custody of the child, and to pay for the child's support, in accordance with that person's financial means; OR
- b. If the child IS in the legal and physical custody of the other parent AND stepparent, and the stepparent is seeking adoption of the child, the RESPONDENT(s) is NOT able or willing to establish and maintain contact with the child and to pay for the child's support, in accordance with that person's financial means; OR
- c. Placing the child in the legal and physical custody of the RESPONDENT(s) would pose a risk of substantial harm to the physical or psychological well being of the child because that RESPONDENT is deemed unfit due to:
 - i. The circumstances of the child's conception; OR
 - ii. The behavior of the RESPONDENT during the mother's pregnancy; OR
 - iii. The behavior of the RESPONDENT(s) after the child was born; OR
 - iv. The behavior of the RESPONDENT(s) with respect to other children.
- d. Failure to terminate the parental rights of RESPONDENT(s) would be detrimental to the child. The Court will consider any relevant factor including:
 - i. The RESPONDENT's efforts to obtain or maintain legal and physical custody of the child; AND

- ii. The role of other persons in interfering with the RESPONDENT's efforts to assert parental rights; AND
- iii. The RESPONDENT's ability to care for the child; AND
- iv. The age of the child; AND
- v. The quality of any previous relationship between the RESPONDENT(s) and the child and between the RESPONDENT(s) and any other minor children; AND
- vi. The duration and suitability of the child's present custodial environment and the effect of a change of physical custody on the child.

Safe Arms For Babies Act

The Safe Arms for Babies Act allows a person to voluntarily surrender a baby to an employee or volunteer working in the emergency department of a Delaware hospital so long as the baby is surrendered alive, unharmed and to a safe place within the emergency department. Abandonment of a baby as provided under the Safe Arms for Babies Act shall be final 30 DAYS after such abandonment.

Once the abandonment under the Safe Arms for Babies Act is final, the person surrendering the baby will be deemed to have consented (agreed) to the termination of all parental rights, if any, under abandonment grounds. Such consent is irrevocable, meaning that the person cannot change his/her mind. Furthermore, such person will not be legally entitled to notice of, or an opportunity to participate in, any TPR proceeding involving the child, unless such person demonstrated an intent to exercise parental rights and responsibilities regarding the child before the abandonment became final (within 30 days of the abandonment).

Frequently Asked Questions About Paternity

the forms referenced in this section are not included in the forms packet. Should you require one of these forms, please see the Family Court Resource Center located in each courthouse.

1) What If The Presumed Father Agrees To Have His Parental Rights (If Any) Terminated But Does NOT Want to Expressly Admit He Is The Father?

The presumed birth father does NOT have to admit being the father of the child on the Consent to Termination and Transfer of Parental Rights form.

If he does not want to admit he is the father but he agrees to the termination of any parental rights he may have over the child, he may write on the first blank line on the form: his name and the word “presumed” and circle the word “father.”

2) What If The Presumed Father Denies He Is The Father And Refuses To Sign A “Consent To Termination And Transfer Of Parental Rights” Form?

If the presumed birth father does NOT believe he is the father, denies he is the father, and refuses to sign a Consent form agreeing to terminate any presumed parental rights he may have, he should NOT sign the Consent Form to Termination and Transfer of Parental Rights form. Instead, he may sign and have notarized an Affidavit Denying Paternity

3) At the time the child was conceived or born, was the birth mother married to a man who was not the father of the child?

If the birth mother was married to someone other than the child’s father at the time the child was either conceived or born, birth mother’s husband must file and Affidavit of Birth Mother’s Husband denying paternity. In this affidavit, which must be signed by a notary public, the man to whom the birth mother was married at the time the child was either conceived or born will state that he is not the birth father of the child and will waive notice to any proceeding regarding the TPR over this child.

If the birth mother was married to different men at the time the child was conceived and born, and neither man is the father of the child, then each man must sign a separate Affidavit of Birth Mother's Husband Denying Paternity and have their signatures notarized. Similarly, if the birth mother was married to different men at the time the child was conceived and born, and one of the men is NOT the birth father, then the man who is NOT the birth father should sign this Affidavit of Birth Mother's Husband Denying Paternity and have his signature notarized.

If the birth mother was married to someone other than the child's father at the time the child was either conceived or born, and you are unable to have this man sign the Affidavit of Birth Mother's Husband Denying Paternity, then the Court must provide to this man notice of the TPR Court Hearing.

4) What if you do not know the name and address of the father because the mother knows the name of the biological father but is unwilling to disclose his name (i.e. refuses to tell anyone who the father is)?

If the birth father's address and/or name is UNKNOWN because the birth mother either does not know his name and/or address or will not tell anyone, the Petitioner must indicate such on their Petition. The Petitioner must also file an Affidavit of Non-Disclosure, which must be notarized. If the birth mother agrees to have her parental rights terminated and refuses to reveal the birth father or presumed birth father's name and/or address, she must be advised that the adoption proceeding may be delayed or subject to a challenge if a possible father is not given notice of the proceeding. Notice will consist of publication in 2 newspapers, as specified in the Service of Process section on page 18 of this packet. She also must be informed that the lack of information about the father's medical and genetic history may be detrimental to the child.

5) What if you do not know the father's address and name because the mother does not know the name of the biological father?

If the Petitioner does not know the father's address and name because mother does not know the name of the biological father, the Petitioner must file an Affidavit that Biological Father's Name is Unknown. This form must be notarized.

6) What if you do not know the identity of the birth father?

If the birth father is UNKNOWN, then you MUST FIRST get a CERTIFICATE OF SEARCH OF THE REGISTRY OF PATERNITY from the OFFICE OF VITAL STATISTICS. Your licensed adoption agency will perform such search and submit such certificate to the Court on your behalf.

The Court will schedule a Court Hearing at which it must be established on the record that the mother and father of the child are not living openly as husband and wife and that they have not done so nor married since the birth of the child. After reviewing a Social Study and Report, the Court may dispense with the requirement of the father's consent.

7) Is a parent under 18 years old?

If so, that parent must be advised by an independent lawyer who is not representing an adoptive parent or agency to which parental rights are being transferred BEFORE such minor signs the appropriate Consent form. The Consent shall NOT be invalid solely by reason that the parent who signed the Consent form is younger than 18 years old at the time of signing.
